

Important notes for preparing and attending QP Introductory and Professional Module Workshops – June 2023 Session

(A) Details of your enrolled workshop

Please login to the Student Centre to obtain the information on workshop date(s), venue(s), examination date(s) and Learning Pack collection details (if applicable) after the enrolment deadline.

All QP Introductory and Professional Module Workshops will be conducted in online format via Zoom. Please be reminded to use desktop/ laptop to attend the online workshop for the enhanced functionality and performance. You are reminded not to use the Zoom Mobile App for attending the online workshop as the content and functions are limited. Students will receive the login details prior to the assigned workshop(s). Please refer to Part C of this note for preparation to attending the online workshop.

(B) Learning Pack for Professional Module

Students who are first-time enrollees of a workshop or an examination of a particular Professional Module (e.g. Module 11 Financial Reporting) and have not enrolled in the corresponding module of the legacy QP (e.g. Module A Financial Reporting) is entitled to a hardcopy of the Learning Pack. The Learning Pack collection details will be sent to students by email. Student who missed the collection period or were previously entitled to a hardcopy of the Learning Pack will not be distributed a copy again.

Students can also view the e-version of the Learning Pack by accessing the particular module webpage under the QP Learning Centre. Students can purchase a hardcopy of the Professional Module Learning Pack at the Institute's service counter.

(C) Pre-workshop assignments

Introductory Workshop

You are required to complete and submit the pre-workshop assignment via the online platform BEFORE attending the workshop by Tuesday, 28 March 2023. Failing to submit the pre-workshop assignment on time will be treated as non-submission and you may not meet the performance indicators of the workshop. Please access the QP Learning Centre for the pre-workshop materials and submission path (QP Learning Centre > Introductory Workshop > Workshop Materials). All assignments submitted must be your original work. An auto-reply email will be sent to you as confirmation of submission. You are reminded to bring along your submission to the workshop.

Professional Modules Workshops

Students are required to complete and submit the pre-workshop assignment via the online platform BEFORE attending the workshop by the below dates:

Module	M11	M12	M13	M14
Date	11 April 2023 (Tue)	12 April 2023 (Wed)	13 April 2023 (Thurs)	14 April 2023 (Fri)

Failing to submit the pre-workshop assignment on time will be treated as non-submission and you may not meet the performance indicators of the workshop. Please access the QP Learning

Centre for the pre-workshop materials and submission path (QP Learning Centre > Module 11/ 12/ 13/ 14 > Study Materials). All assignments submitted must be your original work. An auto-reply email will be sent to you as confirmation of submission. You are reminded to bring along your submission to the workshop.

(D) Preparing for the workshops

- Download and read the QP Student Handbook (Login required)
 - Pay attention to the latest workshop arrangements, which includes but is not limited to:
 - Structure of workshop and the assessment rubrics (Appendix A of the QP Student Handbook) (Login required).
 - Workshop rules.
 - Attendance and punctuality (any late arrival for more than 15 minutes will be treated as absent).
 - Follow your study plan and prepare well for the workshops by studying the module Learning Packs and other reference materials where appropriate.
- Visit the QP Learning Centre regularly
 - Learn about the latest updates of the QP.
 - Familiarize yourself with the Core Enabling Competences \(CECs\) by viewing the four CEC videos under the Student Supports section.

(E) Attending the workshop

Below are some highlights of workshop rules about attendance requirements, identity check procedures and workshop protocols. Students should also refer to Section 3.8.1 of the QP Student Handbook (Login required) for the detailed workshop rules.

i) Attendance

- Students should login to the assigned online workshop(s) at least 30 minutes before the official start time.
- Students are expected to be punctual. Students arriving late or leaving early from his/ her assigned workshop for more than 15 minutes will be treated as absent from the workshop.
- Students are required to name themselves under the required format or to follow the instruction from facilitator when attending the online workshop(s). The format should be Group - First Name, Last Name (Student ID) e.g. A1-Mary Chan (S012345).

ii) Identity check

- Workshop Facilitators may require students to show his/ her identity card or valid passport that clearly display the students' face and full name matching with the Institute's record during the workshop.

iii) During the workshop

- Students are not allowed to wear mask during the workshop and are required to turn on the webcam and mute the microphone unless if they were asked to speak.
- Zoom will be the tool for the online workshops. Make sure the audio and video devices of your computer are well functioned. Any external devices, if used, should be fully connected and tested before the workshop starts. Please click HERE for the specifications and system requirements.
- To avoid technical issues, you are suggested to complete a system test in advance. Lack of a stable internet connection and the set-up of webcam and microphone are the common technical issues encountered. Students should contact the Institute immediately if they experience any technical malfunction.

February 2023